GONZALES, THE semi - demented drunken loafer who shot at King Alfonso a lew weeks ago, has been sentenced to death. What would the punishment tave been if he had killed the King?

TILDEN KNOWS the value of a close mouth as well as Grant; and hence says less than any other man in the country about the great fraud that was consummated three years ago. However, when he speaks he says something, as witness the following

New York, Jan. 30, 1880. To Dr. E. W. Swentzell, President fron Oity Tilden Club, Pittsburg:

City Tiden Club, Pittsbury:

I have received your invitation to attend your annual reception or transmit to you a sentiment. As I cannot be present on that occasion, I give you a sentiment. Obedience to the choice of the majority as expressed in the elections is the vital principle of relf-government, without which its forms are a sham, representing only fraud or force. escuting only fraud or force.
Sawuel J. Tilden.

IF JOHN W. MACKEY'S generou contribution to the New York Herald's Irish relief fund were not characterteristic of the man, people might say he was shamed into doing something for his suffering countrymen. But the Bonanza King is known all over the coast as a big-hearted, wholesouled man, whose ample purse is ever open to the calls of the truly needy. Many stories are told by miners of Mackey's liberality in the days when he could ill afford to give of his limited means. While his present generous gift is no more than was expected from him, it will raise

Twice a court martial has convicted Major Reno of conduct unbecoming an officer and each time recommended his dismissal from the army. His offenses were drunkenness and a brutal familiarity with other men's LATEST TELEGRAMS. wives. Had a civilian been guilty of the crimes he would have looked for the exposure to be followed by a little judicious clubbing if not shooting on the part of indignant husbands. It is well known-and highly proper that is should be so-that court martials deal as leniently as possible in the trial of brother officers. When they convict it cught to be conclusive evidence that the accused is guilty in the follest sense of the charge, and entitled to very little mercy or sympathy. In the first conviction of Reno, the sentence was medified to a short suspension from the army. Upon this restoration, he immediately repeated his offense; the court finds him guilty and recommends his dismissal from the service; but Mr.

TOO IMPORTANT.

General Sherman seems determined to keep himself before the public in an unenvisible light. Not long was appointed, out Davis (w. since was made, which had not been va.) had objected on the ground of decided when the committee adable Washington correspondent of a the vote by which the bill passed. Cincinnati paper, with lying, and said the newspaper man would slander his grandmother for $1,000, or words to that effect. Boynton will prefer charges against Sherman, and ask that he be tried by court-martial for slander and conduct unbecoming an officer of the army. In case the President refuses to order the courtmartial, then a suit for libel is to be instituted against the general.

Now Sharman is in trouble with Congressman Spear, of Georgia. The latter introduced in the House a bill forbidding military bands to play on Sunday. It seems that Sherman likes the sound of brass home and tinue his remarks.

Edmunds thought the discussion base drums on the Sabbath, and as a means for defeating the bill, threatened to withdraw the troops from Atlanta, if Spear pressed the measure. Spear's constituents can stand the music, but they cannot afford to lose the money that the soldiers spend, and therefore they ask saying he wished to say nothing about their representative to withdraw the treaty stipulations, etc., this morning. bill. As a consequence of all this just what he desired to obtain by the Spear is going to haul Sherman over the coals for using his official position to defeat a measure in Congress, and to defeat a measure in Congress, and to defeat a measure of the coals, who ever controlled through the canal, who ever controlled the Great Site of the coals of the canal, who ever controlled the Great Site of the canal, who ever controlled the Great Site of the canal canal, who ever controlled the Great Site of the canal cana for intimidating members of the through the canal, whoever controlled it.
